VOL. XXVII.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, JANUARY 24, 1899.

NO. 93

NEWS OF THE VICINAGE.

Fred Youtz, Lancaster's prize cake walker, is dead.

In Harlan county, H. M. Blair was killed by an unknown party from ambush.

George Griffith was stabbed and seriously injured by an unknown person at Corbin.

Hiram L. Johnson and "Uncle" Arthur Sasser, two good citizens of Laurel, died last week.

C. Green Jackson, harness and saddle dealer, Danville, has assigned. Liabilities about $1,500.

Isaac Smick, aged 80 years, and one of Mercer's most prosperous farmers, died of pneumonia.

The big general store of J. C. Johnson, of Mayo, Mercer county, burned. Loss, $4,000; no insurance.

The corporate existence of the "Farmers National Bank of Danville" has been extended 20 years.

R. Kolker has sold to Mrs. Kate McCabe the Cumberland Hotel near the depot in Somerset for $14,000.

Mrs. Barbara W. Thompson, 89, died at Versailles. She was the mother of Mrs. Kate Brown, of London.

Dr. J. B. Robertson was fined $50 for practicing medicine at Mt. Vernon and on his failure to pay was sent to jail.

The Somerset Paragon says the roads are so bad in that county that country people can't even come to court.

Stanley P. Lyons, a drummer, whose mother lives in Lawrenceburg, committed suicide at Paducah without known cause.

Central University is trying to secure the services of Bert Cunningham, the crack Louisville pitcher, for its base ball team.

Charles Jackson, a barber, skipped from London, after swindling many people. His wife also left with another person's trunk.

The election commissioners in Marion decided that Raywick voted against the sale of whisky, not for it as the officers returned.

The Signal wants Rockcastle to sell $20,000 worth of bonds for the purpose of building a turnpike from the Lincoln line to Livingston.

Reuben Broadbent, of Madison, was sent to the asylum at Lexington, after an unsuccessful attempt at suicide by cutting his throat with a razor.

Following have been appointed postmasters: Sherman Cotton, at Cottonsburg; J. L. Powell, Redhouse, and A. B. Haley, Joseph Lick, all in Madison county.

Thomas Morgan, head clerk at the Phoenix, Lexington, will be a partner with Herbert Hommel, of Danville, in the management of Rockcastle Springs this season.

The Kentucky Inter-collegiate Oratorical Contest will be pulled off at Lexington, April 7. W. C. Goodloe, of Centre College, was elected president of the association.

The Laurel County Fair Association will dissolve and Mr. J. T. Williams has been selected to wind up the affairs. It is likely that there will be no more fairs held at London for a while at least.

Gov. Bradley commissioned Geo. W. Albrecht captain of Company F, 4th Kentucky, vice E. L. Helburn. Peter C. Breshner was commissioned 1st lieutenant vice Albrecht, who was formerly editor of the Middlesboro News.

Mrs. J. A. Franklin, of Conway, Rockcastle county, has been engaged by the Zoological Garden at Cincinnati to show her two-months old son, who was born with neither arms nor legs. She will receive $15 per week and expenses.

Mrs. Maggie S. Farra, who with her two small children, Roberta and Mary Scott, met with the terrible accident at Lyne crossing, on the Cincinnati Southern, Sep. 4, 1892, resulting in the death of little Mary, after awaiting the delays of litigation for seven years, has at last recovered the amounts awarded at the original trial in Judge Barr's court, at Frankfort, in 1894. The sum recovered with interest amounted to $8,920.—Jesseamine Journal.

The death of Simon Cohen at Rutledge, Tenn., recalls the sensational robbery in which he was the victim and afterwards the slayer of the robber. While a peddler he spent the night at B. F. Thornbury's near Jellico, in 1888. He was held up by a man supposed to be a Negro and relieved of $185. After the man had gone out, he fired at him and the bullet did its deadly work. Investigation proved that the robber was no other than Thornbury himself, blacked up, and as he bore a good reputation the matter created the greatest sensation.

THE DEADLY GRIP.
Is again abroad in the land. The air you breathe may be full of its fatal germs. Don't neglect the "Grip" or you will open the door to pneumonia and consumption and invite death. Its sure signs are chills with fever, headache, dull heavy pains, muscular discharges from the nose, sore throat and never-let-go cough. Don't waste precious time treating this cough with troches, lozenges, or poor cheap syrups. Cure it at once with Dr. King's New Discovery, the infallible remedy for bronchitis and pneumonia. It kills the disease germs, heals the lungs and prevents the dreaded after effects from the malady. Price 50 cts. and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

Cincinnati, Florida and Havana Limited is a new train—54 hours Cincinnati to Havana, Queen & Crescent Route and connecting rail and steamship lines. Finest trains in the South. Through tickets on sale Cincinnati to Havana via this line.

William Weighman is the richest man in Philadelphia, the city of millions. His wealth is estimated at $70,000,000, made in the drug business, and not a dollar of it is invested in railroad stocks.

The total fire loss in Louisville in 1898 was $735,000.

DANVILLE.

The holiness meeting continues. Three services each day.

The Christian Endeavor Literary Club met with the Misses Cox Friday afternoon.

The Centre Guitar and Mandolin Club will give a concert in Lebanon on the evening of Feb. 3rd.

J. C. Lewis appeared at the opera house Thursday evening in St. Plunkard and delighted a full house.

Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Hester Bryant and Mr. Scott Gore at the Episcopal church, Feb. 1st.

The Boyle County Teachers Association held in Danville Saturday was of unusual interest. There were many visitors from the schools of the neighboring towns.

The Busy Bees of the Baptist church gave the little comedy, "Black Diamond," at the home of Mrs. J. H. Briggs, Friday evening. Quite a nice little sum was realized for the missionary cause.

Hill Spaulding, of Lebanon, is visiting friends in Danville. Miss Hester Bryant entertained Friday afternoon in honor of Miss Hartwell, of Chicago.

Dr. E. W. Green spent Friday in Lexington with Dr. Bartell, who recently returned from Europe. Miss Bessie Pales and her guest, Miss Helm, were "stormed" Thursday evening by a party of girls and boys. Miss Annie Royston, of Garrard, was the guest of friends in Danville Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Woolfolk have returned from Mobile. Mrs. A. E. Hundley entertained the "Country Club" Friday evening. The Fanny Work Club met with Miss Nannie Wood at her beautiful country home. Clay Goodloe attended the meeting of the committee-men of the Inter-collegiate Oratorical contest, held in Lexington Saturday. Mr. A. B. Rust is in Chicago. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Phillips leave Tuesday for Florida to spend the rest of the winter. Both are recovering from a siege of the grip.

The fate of the missing yacht, Paul Jones, and her passengers, for whom a dozen parties have been searching for a week, is now known. The yacht exploded on or about Jan. 6, near Bird Island, 30 miles from the mouth of the Mississippi, and it is believed that every one on board was killed at once or drowned soon after.

Three young men were placed in jail at Morgantown on a horrible charge. Their names are Guy Russell, Elliott Morehead and Daniel Barnett and they are accused of decoying and keeping in a straw rick for two days, three respectable girls, who are nearly dead from abuse and exposure.

A dispatch from Paris says: Two physicians of repute, Drs. Tufier and Hailion, declare that unless there is an injury to some vital organ it is possible to restore life to a dead body. More than this, they claim to have wrought this miracle and they are men of high standing.

An attempt to bribe councilmen was made by a woman at Louisville in the interest of a local newspaper, which wanted to embarrass the democratic administration, but she was arrested and the plot unfolded.

A jury at Oshkosh, Wis., decided that a barkeeper who sold a man liquor until he was helpless and then threw him into the street to die of exposure, was guilty of manslaughter.

A Negro who says he had been exposed to small-pox, broke out with something like it while in the Somerset jail and all the town people are now being vaccinated.

The army reorganization bill was brought up in the House yesterday and the debate on the measure will continue 15 hours, not to include three night sessions.

The United States government has contracted with a Terre Haute company for 150 red, white and blue mail wagons.

THE RAVAGES OF GRIP.
That modern scourge, the Grip, poisons the air with its fatal germs, so that no home is safe from its ravages, but multitudes have found a sure protection against this dangerous malady in Dr. King's New Discovery. When you feel a soreness in your bones and muscles, have chills and fever, with sore throat, pain in the back of the head, catarrhal symptoms and a stubborn cough you may know you have the Grip, and that you need Dr. King's New Discovery. It will promptly cure the worst, cough heal the inflamed membranes, kill the disease germs and prevent the dreaded after effects of the malady. Price 50 cts. and $1.00. Money back if not cured. A trial bottle free at Penny's Drug Store.

Cincinnati, Florida and Havana Limited is a new train—54 hours Cincinnati to Havana, Queen & Crescent Route and connecting rail and steamship lines. Finest trains in the South. Through tickets on sale Cincinnati to Havana via this line.

William Weighman is the richest man in Philadelphia, the city of millions. His wealth is estimated at $70,000,000, made in the drug business, and not a dollar of it is invested in railroad stocks.

The total fire loss in Louisville in 1898 was $735,000.

LANCASTER.

Mr. Frank Marksbury has gone to Louisville to enter Bryant & Stratton's business college.

Sam McKee, colored, was fined $50 in the police court for attempting to kill another colored man.

The supervisors raised the property of the county $107,884, making the total assessed value $4,124,650.

A Garrard county beau and Lincoln county belle will take the marriage vows in a few days. Particulars later.

Mr. Jesse D. Royston, a brother of James A. Royston, age 58 years, died near Bryantsville and the remains were buried in Lancaster cemetery Friday in the presence of a large crowd of friends and relatives. He was a prominent farmer and trader.

John Bright's puzzle in the last issue of the INTERIOR JOURNAL, reminds me of Uncle Pate Embury, as he used to explain it to me 30 years ago. Of course the shoe maker lost just what the counterfeiter gained, $13 and the boots.

Butler Engelman, the Leaf correspondent for the Central Record, doubts the truth of my assertion that I did farm work in Lincoln county. I refer him to Col. Tom Hill and Sam Embury, whose reputation for veracity is unimpeached.

I have a cat that gets on the dresser and goes through the motion of adjusting its hair, using powder, etc. It then goes to the piano, climbs up the stool and actually touches the keys as if attempting to make music. This is told for the truth and can be proved.

Hon. P. W. Hardin seems to be gaining ground in his gubernatorial aspirations. Of course Garrard county should instruct for him as he is in our judicial and Congressional district and for the additional reason that he would make as good a governor as any one of the aspirants.

Mr. S. B. Harris, Jr., of Louisville, was with his father, Mr. E. W. Harris, this city, on Sunday. Capt. Louis Landrum went to Lexington Saturday. Mr. R. L. Elkin took several premiums on his fine Minorca fowls at the Louisville poultry show. He and wife returned yesterday.

The Lancaster correspondent for the Cincinnati Post sent a message stating that Rice Bengie arrested John Wallace for horse stealing and the type said that Wallace had arrested Bengie for that offense. This correction is due Mr. Bengie, as he does not belong to that class.

Much has been said about the new woman, but more can be said about the new boy or young man. When I was a boy, if I got a pair of boots and a pack of fire crackers on Christmas day, I was satisfied. Now it takes a diamond ring, a pistol, a watch, a buggy or a horse to keep peace in the family. Up to the age of 21 years, we all worked at home and asked permission to go away. Now the old man must consult the young man before he can go. A generation ago a young man would be drummed out of society for smoking even tobacco in the presence of ladies. Now they smoke even cigarettes in their presence on the streets and in their homes, and, worst of all, visit them with the fumes of liquor on their breath. This is a terrible state of affairs and the young ladies are to blame for allowing such conduct. A young lady retired from the presence of a young man in this city because whisky was on his breath, and if others would follow her example the world would be better. Of course there are exceptions to such practices, as there are some polite, moral young men.

A fashion note says that the silk petticoat which has been so popular will soon be discarded to take its place will be simply nothing. The newest gowns are being so close fitting, not only in the waist and sleeves, but from head to foot, that silk or woolen tights must needs be worn under them. The entire figure is to be brought out in such bold relief that the effect will be startling.

As officially reported to the House committee on invalid pensions, the casualties of the Spanish war were: Officers killed, 26; enlisted men killed, 257; officers wounded, 113; enlisted men wounded, 1,467. Deaths from disease, May 1 to Dec. 31; officers 111; men 4,854.

The court of appeals holds that a superintendent of county schools is not empowered under the law to revoke the certificate of a teacher in the common schools because the latter has given assistance to an applicant for a certificate during the examination.

The death penalty is forbidden by law in Colorado, Rhode Island, Maine, Michigan and Wisconsin. In Rhode Island the only alternative is imprisonment for life. In Kansas the signature of the governor is necessary to an execution.

THE EAGLE, KING OF ALL BIRDS.
Is noted for its keen sight, clear and distinct vision. So are those persons who use Sutherland's Eagle Eye Salve for weak eyes, styes, sore eyes of any kind or granulated lids. Sold at Penny's at 25 cents.

MATRIMONIAL MATTERS.

W. L. Leonard, 26, and Miss Campbell, only 12, were married in Clinton county.

Granville Adams, 22, and Miss Laura Wells, 17, were married at David Noaks' yesterday.

Charles M. Boddow, 38, and Georgia Wilhartz, 21, both of Danville, were married in Covington.

C. C. Cundiff and Miss Mary E., the handsome daughter of J. J. Frazure, were married at Somerset last week by Rev. F. M. Hill.

Harold L. Fowle, a member of the 1st Kentucky, and Miss Lula C., daughter of B. F. Gragg, of Somerset, were married last week.

George B. Rice, assistant engineer, United States Navy, from Pineville, and Miss Elizabeth McVay, of Sewickley, Pa., were married there on the 20th.

Miss Flora Maxwell Wheatley and Mr. George W. Bacot were married at Americus, Ga. "It was one of the most brilliant weddings in the history of the town" says the Evening Herald.

David Atkins, of Sellersburg, Ind., is arranging to marry the same woman the third time. He has been twice divorced from her, but she draws him back like a magnet and finds her absolutely irresistible.

Mrs. Mary Keller, the divorced wife of Murray Keller, and a daughter of the late Dr. E. D. Standford, president of the L. & N., was married in Buffalo to Horace Kleinhaus, late of the Mammoth Store, Louisville.

Some Chicago girls have organized a Hobson club, and at each meeting one male guest is elected "Hobson." The girls file past and he is expected to kiss each girl once. If he refuses he must give her a pound of candy, and if she refuses to be kissed she must embroider a hat mark for him.

Indiana is a wonderful State or she has more than her complement of liars. A dispatch from Strawtown says that Mrs. Polly Owens has just entered her 14th matrimonial venture and that Mr. and Mrs. Carter Manis, of Anderson, are rejoicing over their 29th child.

Her rich old uncle at St. Louis left his fortune to Miss Mary Gregg on condition that she should never change her surname. Her lover loved her more after the bequest than before and to remove any trouble about the inheritance, went before the court and had his name changed to G-regg, after which he married the heiress and now they are as happy as big sun flowers.

Mrs. Mary Adkins, who procured a divorce from her husband, Prof. Adkins several years ago, has brought suit against him at Delaware, O., for $10,000 damages for breach of promise. She alleges that they became reconciled and agreed to marry again, but that the professor is disposed to play her false. It will be hard for her to make a jury believe that she is damaged to that extent by the failure of a man to marry her, whom she once swore she could not live with.

The course of true love rarely runs smooth, but in the case of Albert Smith and Miss Nellie Stewart it seems to have been especially rough. She lived in Louisville and he in Jeffersonville. Finding favor in her eyes, he soon became engaged and gave her a diamond ring. Afterwards she jilted him but refused to return the sparkler. He sued her for it and the jury said it was hers. Smith became the laughing stock of his friends, but his love for the girl remained and he again sought her hand. She relented and not wishing to give her time to change her mind again, he secured an immediate marriage.

Mrs. Louise Coombs, at Erlanger, Ky., received a letter Friday which was written to her by her husband, Capt. Thomas M. Coombs, August 14, 1863, while he was a prisoner of war in the Ohio penitentiary with John Morgan, the Confederate raider. Capt. Coombs tried to send the letter out by underground route, but it was detected by Warden Nathan Myron and seized. He found the missive the other day in his papers and forwarded it to the widow, Capt. Coombs having been dead many years.

The total number of men in the U. S. army in the war with Mexico was 112,230. Kentucky had four regiments of infantry, one regiment of cavalry and one independent company, numbering in all 4,812. The casualties reported among the Kentucky volunteers were: killed 78, wounded 105, died of wounds 4. On June 30, 1898, there were on the rolls the names of 10,012 survivors and 8,143 widows, a total of 18,155.

PERSONAL AND SOCIETY GOSSIP.

BORN to the wife of A. R. Matheny, a girl.
MRS. W. G. WELCH is ill of the prevailing disease.
REV. A. S. MOFFETT, of Lebanon, arrived yesterday.
MRS. S. G. DRYE, of Hustonville, is with Mrs. G. B. Cooper.
JOHN BRIGHT, JR., of Grays, spent Sunday with homefolks here.
MRS. W. H. BRADY and children went to Louisville Saturday.
MR. AND MRS. J. H. BAUGHMAN spent several days in Louisville.
REV. S. M. RANKIN continues quite ill. His pulpit was vacant Sunday.
MISS FRANCES SPOONAMORE spent several days with Mrs. Phil Price in Richmond.
MR. JOE RICE went to Louisville yesterday and his pretty wife is in charge of the depot.
MRS. JOHN ZIMMERMAN, of Cameltown, Ind., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Charles E. Cox.
MISS HELEN THURMOND went to Somerset Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. John S. May.
MR. AND MRS. GEO. D. WEAREN are moving to their new home near the Presbyterian church.
MRS. E. B. HILL, of Danville, who has been visiting friends near her old home, returned Friday.
MISS ALZA BROWN, who has been attending college here, returned to her home at Mt. Vernon Saturday.
MRS. M. F. ARBUCKLE, of Richmond, was the guest of the Misses Paxton, returning from Louisville.
MISS MARY ROBERTSON, of Elizabethtown, was here Saturday en route to visit Mrs. W. R. Cook in Garrard.
MRS. A. H. SEVERANCE is extremely ill of blood poisoning and peritonitis, but was somewhat better yesterday.
MRS. WM. FIELDS, of Fayette, and W. G. Lackey, of St. Louis, arrived Sunday in time to see their mother alive.
JOSEPH COFFEY has sold his stock of goods at Livingston to G. W. Brooks & Co., formerly of Hazel Patch, and will move his family here.
MR. AND MRS. J. H. SYMPSON, of Casey, have moved to Miss Lizzie Beazley's cottage on Upper Main street. We welcome them to the town.
MR. J. T. HACKLEY proved that the report that he was dead was a lie by appearing in town yesterday, looking like anything else but a corpse.
MR. JOAN RIGNEY, of Casey, brought his daughter, Miss Anna Lee, here to take the train for Bowling Green, where she will enter the Southern Normal School.
MISS FANNIE THOMPSON and Jennie Pettus and Master David Thompson, all of the Preachersville section, took the train here for Georgetown Saturday to enter college.
MR. WM. STUART, of Crab Orchard, who had an operation for cataract of the eye performed at the Joseph Price Infirmary, is doing nicely and will soon be able to go home.
MISS EUDORA AXELLE, of Evanson, Ill., arrived Friday to succeed Miss Ruth Ellerson at the College. Miss Ellerson left for Williamsburg the same day to take a special course.
EDITOR-LOUIS LANDRAM, of Lancaster, passed through to Lexington Saturday with Miss Rutha Bigelow, who was returning to her home at Trenton, Tenn., after a visit to Mrs. Landram.
MR. SOMMERS LEE, advance man of the Nat Reiss Co., arrived yesterday and tells us the troupe will open here Thursday night in the five-act military comedy drama entitled, "The Furlough."
ED JONES, familiarly known as "Lad," was a passenger on Sunday's Northbound passenger. He was a volunteer in an Arkansas regiment, but has been at Pineville since he was mustered out.
JAMES T. MENEFEE will represent Georgetown College at the inter-collegiate oratorical contest at Winchester, Feb. 3rd. His subject will be, "The Tell-Tale Heart," and Ashby Warren, who is training him for the occasion, is getting him in fine trim.
SEPT. J. I. McKINNEY is in big luck. He won for the L. & N. a damage suit for $100,000 and secured four out of 10 premiums offered on the 29 divisions for the best division. The Mobile & Montgomery division shows the highest percentage, 81.62, the next highest being the first division and main stem, which is 81.38.
MR. AND MRS. G. S. SHELBY brought their little son, Steele, to the Joseph Price Infirmary to have his spinal column straightened. A fall threw it out of plumb and makes him stoop shouldered. He was placed in a plaster of Paris mould, in which he will be kept for six months, after which he will have to wear a leather corset for a long time.
HARDWARE and Tools of every description at Warren & Shanley's.

WINDOW lights, putty, etc., at Craig & Hocker's.

HOUSE with six rooms, a kitchen and a basement, on Main Street, for rent. Apply to W. P. Walton.
THE L. B. Adams farm near Hustonville, was taken down at $48. Mr. Adams holds the place at $50.
GOOD LIVING.—Our stock of Fancy Groceries and Evap. Fruits is full and of the best. Warren & Shanks.
BUILDING LOTS.—Two nice building lots, 1 1/2 acres in all, for sale. See back of my residence. J. B. Owens.
BIG LEMON.—Mrs. John W. Wallace sent us yesterday a lemon from her tree which has 30 others on it. The specimen weighs a pound and is a beauty.
POLK MILLER, the lecturer and Negro character delineator, writes that it will be impossible for him to get here on the 27th, but will positively appear Feb. 2d.
"AUNT" SALLIE LITTLE, a good, old colored woman, died Friday. She was a very large woman and Undertaker McClary had to make a coffin for her; all in stock being too small.
The widow of Engineer James Scanlan, who was killed in a collision on this division in 1897, was awarded $10,000 damages by the Law and Equity court at Louisville. She sued for $30,000.
MRS. W. G. WELCH's black horse, "Welch," dropped dead yesterday from an injury received a week ago and Dan Caldwell, his keeper, buried him with honors and tears, in the back lot of the premises.
A DISPATCH from Junction City says that Barrell Ellis, aged 17, son of Frank Ellis, former marshal and now serving a sentence for murder, threw an iron poker at his mother, striking her. The boy was sent to the workhouse at Danville for 14 days.
BROKE HIS KNEE.—W. H. Lewis, a brakeman on No. 32, fell here Friday, while running to throw a switch and broke his knee. Dr. Peyton, the company's surgeon, set the bones and the sufferer was taken to Lebanon Junction, where his wife lives, on No. 24.
WORK OF THIEVES.—While Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Baughman were away from home Saturday afternoon some one effected an entrance to their house by a window and stole a pistol and other articles. J. W. Allen's smoke house at Hustonville was broken into last week and a small amount of meat appropriated.
GOV. TAYLOR.—The Maccabees, through Deputy Commander M. F. Elkin, have engaged the noted lecturer, Gov. Taylor, of Tennessee, to deliver his great production, "The Fiddle and the Bow," at Walton's Opera House Tuesday night, 31. This will be one of the greatest treats ever offered our people and they will doubtless show their appreciation by a large audience.
ROLL OF HONOR.—The following pupils of Stanford Female College, having attained a general average of 95, in their recent examinations, are entitled to have their names inscribed on the roll of honor: Misses Anna Darst, Lena Griffin, Stella McClary, Louise Eastland, Sotie Alcorn, Susan VanArsdale, Stella Ruple, Virginia Warren, Lucy Hall, Pearl Gentry, Polly Taylor, Mary McRoberts, Mary Mobley, Katie Newland and Kit Huffman. The highest grade, 98.25, was attained by Lucy Hall.
THE NAT REISS CO.—The press and people are loud in praise of the Nat Reiss Co., which will appear at Walton's Opera House, Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights of this week. The Middleboro News, in speaking of its second appearance there, says: The company carries a good strong cast for every play, and it is among the best repertoire companies that has visited this city. The specialties by Silvers and Trixie Lewis are new and up-to-date, and they always made a hit at each performance. The personnel of the company would be hard to better, and a more gentlemanly and lady like is seldom found.
MORE ABOUT JOHNSON.—Marshal O. J. Newland is in receipt of a letter from Mrs. W. M. Johnson, at Waltham, Mass., containing a picture of her son, Charles Johnson, who is doubtless the phrenologist who ran off with Miss Susie Hamm, of Rowland, a few weeks ago. She offers $50 for information as to his whereabouts and after giving a description of her son, which answers to that of the phrenologist, says he had a spell of typhoid fever some time ago and she thinks it left his mind in a bad condition. Mrs. Johnson says he has business interests at Waltham and that there is every reason why he should return home.

OLD CLOCK.—A. Griffin, of the East End, has an old fashioned tall clock which is over 100 years old and which still keeps correct time. It is made entirely of wood.
FAIR and warmer weather has prevailed since last issue, Sunday being very balmy. Rain last night, with clearing and much colder Tuesday, was the prediction yesterday.
AMUSEMENTS GALORE.—It never rains unless it pours both in the amusements as well as the material world. We did not have a show from Oct. 15 to Jan. 18 and now we are to have six entertainments in 10 days. The Nat Reiss Repertoire Co. will be at Walton's Opera House the three last nights of this week. Gov. Taylor, of Tennessee, will lecture on "The Fiddle and the Bow," on the 31st and on Feb. 2, the inimitable Polk Miller will hold the boards.
GOOD butter is almost impossible to obtain here now, the now rancid stuff put up last summer by the frugal housewives, being the only kind easily obtainable. We do not call names, for we do not know, but a woman who stands well, sold a merchant here the other day some extra good looking butter. The merchant laid it away for his best customers, but when he went to cut it, found that the so-called butter was in reality very common lard, with a thin coating of nice butter.
JACKSON ONTO HIM.—Mr. W. S. McGuire, who has just returned from Mexico, the county seat of Jackson, tells us that only one man got a penitentiary verdict at the present term of the court, Grant Hays for the killing of Frank Lakes, two years, and he was given a new trial. He found that Davidson is very unpopular in Jackson, who would have received less than 500 majority there, had that county remained in the district. "What's the matter?" was asked. "They say they are disappointed in him. He didn't do anything for them and that there is nothing in him anyhow."
BREMER.—After several months' illness of a complication of diseases, Mr. Elme H. Bremer died Sunday evening at the home of his son, Erich Bremer, proprietor of the Carpenter House. He was born in Germany 65 years ago and came to this country some 15 years since. His wife died in 1875, but two children, the son named and a daughter in the old country survive. Mr. Bremer was an honest, hard working man and a member of the Lutheran church, to whose teachings he was much attached. The burial occurred in Buffalo cemetery yesterday afternoon after a short service at the grave by the Lutheran minister.
A HORRIBLE piece of news comes from London. Attorney E. K. Wilson, a young man of high standing, is in jail there to face the terrible charge of seducing Miss Mary Cloyd, a pretty country girl, who was employed in the Catching Hotel and of producing an abortion on her when their sin was about to be found out. From the operation, Miss Cloyd died and Wilson, who had fled to Richmond, was brought back Saturday night and incarcerated. Passengers on yesterday's train say that there was much talk of lynching Sunday night, but better counsel prevailed. Mr. Wilson has stood high as a man and a lawyer in his town and it is to be hoped that there is some mistake about his guilt of the double crime.
GRIMES.—A dispatch to W. P. Grimes Saturday from Kansas City brought the sad news of the death of his mother, Mrs. Martha Lackey Grimes, who was spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. J. Carver Jones. Grip, which developed into pneumonia, carried her away Friday night, after a short illness. Mrs. Grimes was a daughter of the late Col. Gabe Lackey and was born in this county on his Hanging Fork farm Oct. 12, 1820 making her 79 years old. She was the only living daughter by his first marriage, but she had a half brother and sister, Hon. G. A. Lackey, of this county, and Mrs. A. R. Denny, of Garrard. About 50 years ago, she married Col. Thomas P. Grimes, of Georgia, who died some 15 years ago, and in addition to the two named, three other children survive, Sterling P. Grimes, of Cuero, Texas, Joe S. Grimes, of Elizabethtown, and Miss Pauline Grimes, who accompanied her to Kansas City. Immediately on receipt of the news, Mr. Joe Grimes left for that city and will arrive with the remains today. Mrs. Grimes was one of the original members of the Presbyterian church here and was the only survivor of the organization which originally worshipped in a church on Cemetery hill. She was indeed and in truth a splendid christian woman, who reared her children in the nurture and admonition of the Lord and they now, as always, rise up and call her blessed. Her days were long upon the earth and her reward having come at last, in the fullness of time and in the firmest of faith, those who loved her should not grieve now that she enjoys eternal rest.
The remains will arrive on the 1:24 P. M. train today, 24th, and will be taken at once to the Presbyterian church, when Rev. A. S. Moffett will deliver the funeral sermon, after which they will be conveyed to Buffalo Cemetery.

JOHN TRAYLOR has invented a metal counter for a shoe, which he will patent. It will prove a God send to those who are given to running their shoes down at the heel.
THE Nat Reiss Dramatic Co. will open a three nights engagement at Walton's Opera House, Thursday, 26th, in the five-act military comedy drama, "The Furlough." Admission 25, 45 and 50c, latter for reserved seats to be secured at McRoberts' Drug Store.
JACKSON county hasn't a Negro within its borders and probably that's the cause of its overwhelming republican majority. Mountain people as a general thing, are not fond of the colored brother and the sight of them crowding the polls would very likely have the effect of making the Jacksonite vote under the rooster, or with the white folks.
TO FEED.—500 shocks of fodder to feed, S. K. Dudderar, Gilbert's Creek.
AN OLD ONE.—Seeing our item about F. P. Tuttle's old rifle charger, S. H. Dudderar, of the Dudderar's Mill section, brought to town and showed us Saturday one made in 1823. It was made by Walter McPherson from the horn of a deer he killed that year on the old McPherson place where Mr. Dudderar now resides. Besides his initials and the date there is carved on it animals, flowers, etc., and was no doubt an eclipsing one in looks in the day it was used.
LACKEY.—Death indeed rides on the wind. In an experience of 25 years in Stanford, we have never known the dread monster to cut so indiscriminately and so furiously. One of the saddest of the many deaths was that of Mrs. Mary Welch Lackey, wife of Hon. G. A. Lackey, who breathed her last shortly after 7 P. M. Sunday from heart trouble, complicated with other diseases. Deceased was a daughter of the late Dr. Thomas Welch, of Crab Orchard, and was of nine children peculiarly blessed with physical and mental charms, the survivors being Mrs. Hannah Jennings, of St. Louis; Mrs. Ophelia Thompson and Miss Clara Welch, of Chicago; Dr. Sam Welch, of Texas, and Col. W. G. Welch, of this place. She was born Feb. 15, 1844, and was married to Mr. Lackey, Sep. 17, 1867. Five children blessed their union, Mrs. J. C. Bailey, Miss Ophelia Lackey, T. T. G. T. and W. G. Lackey, all of whom were present at the end, Mr. W. G. Lackey, who lives in St. Louis, arriving a few hours before and having the satisfaction of being recognized and embraced by her. Uniting with the Christian church in early life, she lived a life of beauty and piety, and when the summons came, she was able to say, "Thine, not my will, oh, Lord, be done." She was conscious of her approaching death and felt no fears of meeting her Master face to face, satisfied that she would receive His plaudit. A devoted wife, a loving and tender mother, an excellent neighbor, a faithful friend, she goes hence mourned by others than her weeping husband, children, brothers and sisters. May the great comforter give consolation and reunite them all where there is no more parting and no more death. The funeral will be held today at the Christian church, and after a sermon by Rev. F. W. Allen, all that is mortal of wife, sister and mother will be laid to rest in Buffalo Cemetery.
